EXPERIENCE GALÁPAGOS FROM A NEW PERSPECTIVE

WITH NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC-LINDBLAD EXPEDITIONS

For more than 20 years, National Geographic and Lindblad Expeditions have collaborated to connect curious travelers with transformative experiences. These pioneers defined modern expedition travel, and now they are setting new standards with immersive and illuminating voyages, where every element of the experience inspires genuine discovery.

TRAVEL WITH A WORLD-CLASS TEAM

Voyages are led by passionate expedition teams—naturalists, photographers and cultural specialists who are explorers at heart. National Geographic Experts join select departures, inspiring new perspectives on your surroundings.

TAKE GREAT PHOTOS WITH THE PROS

National Geographic photographers have spent decades traveling the globe, capturing the world's most impactful images. They join select Galápagos expeditions, and a National Geographic certified photo instructor accompanies every departure, helping travelers hone their camera skills in captivating places.

EXPLORE YOUR WAY EVERY DAY

Itineraries feature a range of immersive activities that bring you into the pages of National Geographic Magazine, from snorkeling with curious sea lions to hiking amid colonies of blue-footed boobies. Each expedition offers excursions for every skill level so that you can explore your way—and at your own pace—every day.

REVEALING UNDERSEA WONDERS

An undersea specialist brings Galápagos marine wonders to the surface by capturing underwater footage of fascinating sea creatures and geological features. During nightly recaps, the specialist interprets images from the day's dive, offering insights integral to the story of Galápagos.

EXPEDITIONS THAT GIVE BACK

Travel with peace of mind knowing that every voyage gives back to protect the natural and cultural heritage of Galápagos through the Lindblad Expeditions-National Geographic Fund. To date, the fund has invested more than $24 million to projects aimed at preserving the world's oceans, restoring critical marine and coastal habitats and fostering environmental stewardship.

All In

Activities and excursions are always included in the voyage price unless otherwise noted.

A DAY IN GALÁPAGOS

The animals of the Galápagos are unusual, unafraid and overwhelmingly endemic, and observing them with knowledgeable guides is the hallmark of your experience.

Early Start: Rise and Roam

Greet the day with a stretch session on the beach, practicing sun salutations with your wellness specialist, or head to the bow to look for early-morning wildlife activity alongside expert naturalists. Young travelers in the National Geographic Global Explorers program can begin recording the day's sightings in their official field notebooks.

A Farm-to-Table Breakfast

A fresh breakfast awaits in the dining room: bespoke omelets, a rainbow of fruits and juices, Galápagos-grown coffee and more—much of it sourced from local farms as part of the fleet's pioneering farm-to-table program.

Morning Excursion: Dive In

Snorkel or scuba dive* in the Galápagos Marine Reserve, home to an array of captivating creatures: sea lions, technicolor fish, marine iguanas and feeding penguins. Prefer to stay dry? Join a naturalist in a Zodiac or glass-bottom boat for a cruise through a shallow bay to observe marine life at water level.

Talks and Photo Tips

Back on board, join a naturalist or National Geographic certified photo instructor in the lounge for an engaging talk or a smart-phone photo tips session. Or head to the fitness center, relax in a hammock on deck or read up on Charles Darwin in the library.

A Local Lunch

Every meal on your voyage is fresh, sustainable and locally sourced—but one lunch stands out: a special Ecuadorian feast, with dishes from the country's coasts, highlands and islands. The wild-caught fish in coconut milk is a highlight.

Afternoon Excursion: Paddle, Hike or Walk

Paddle a kayak or stand-up paddleboard along the coast for a closer look at fascinating volcanic features and textures. Or head ashore with your camera in hand for a birding walk. Sightings depend on the island—but keep a lookout for or waved albatrosses performing courtship dances and flightless cormorants diving for fish.

Ready for Recap

Meet in the lounge over drinks and hors d'oeuvres, and settle in for the daily recap, featuring presentations and photo slideshows on the day's adventures and a preview of tomorrow's activities. The fleet often hosts researchers, national park personnel and other people living and working in the Galápagos, and one of these special guests may be tonight's featured speaker.

Seeing Stars

After a delicious dinner, bring your binoculars to the top deck for a naturalist-led stargazing session. You'll have the rare opportunity to see the Big Dipper and Southern Cross at the same time—a phenomenon that only happens at the Equator.

Scuba diving is available for experienced divers on select departures and at an additional cost. Diving excursions are run by a local operator.*

THE ULTIMATE GALÁPAGOS EXPEDITION FLEET

Beginning early this year, National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions will sail four exceptional vessels in the Galápagos year-round, each with a unique onboard experience. Together, they offer a full spectrum of travel options, whether you wish to voyage solo or with family—or charter an entire ship for a private experience.

National Geographic Delfina

Specially designed for cruising the islands, this sleek, luxury catamaran is the most intimate ship in the Galápagos fleet, accommodating 16 guests in eight spacious staterooms. Each cabin has a private balcony or access to an expansive wooden deck, and amenities include open-air dining and a top deck hot tub.

National Geographic Delfina is ideal for private voyages; when you charter her just for your family or group, you enjoy all the benefits of the National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions Galápagos experience, including access to the National Geographic Global Explorers program for young travelers.

National Geographic Islander II

National Geographic Islander II is an intrepid expedition vessel with the spirit and soul of a private yacht. She is outfitted with 26 comfortable staterooms and suites as well as sleek shared spaces that emphasize indoor-outdoor living.

Al fresco dining and an open-air observation deck and plunge pool give you the exhilarating feeling of being out on the water with all the comfort of graciously appointed living spaces. Every detail of the onboard experience—from the regional artwork to the locally sourced meals—immerses you in your Ecuadorian surroundings, while special amenities, including a well-equipped marina and a dedicated science hub, take your Galápagos explorations to a new level.

National Geographic Gemini

Launched in 2001 from the same shipyard as National Geographic Orion, the highly maneuverable 48-guest National Geographic Gemini is geared for discovery, with Zodiacs, a glass-bottom boat, kayaks and paddleboards and snorkeling gear for each guest. She offers a variety of outward-facing cabin configurations—a mix of singles, doubles, triples and connecting cabins and suites, including the largest suites in the Galápagos fleet.

Enjoy the outdoors on the upper deck, where a hot tub, fitness center and spa meet your wellness needs. The outdoor café and indoor dining room accommodate all guests, and the lounge features a large bar and well-stocked library.

National Geographic Endeavour II

Born in Patagonia, National Geographic Endeavour II was repositioned to the Galápagos following a stem-to-stern refit that perfectly accommodates the National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions style of travel. She accommodates just 96 guests in 52 thoughtfully appointed cabins and is comfortable and welcoming to solos, groups and kids of all ages.

National Geographic Endeavour II is exceptionally nimble, with a shallow draft for up-close discovery and exceptional viewing from all public spaces. Her exploration tools include a glass-bottom boat, underwater cameras and video microscope as well as kayaks, paddleboards and dedicated snorkeling gear for each guest.

A TRAVEL EXPERIENCE FIVE DECADES IN THE MAKING

In the 1960s, the Galápagos Islands were known around the world as the inspiration for Charles Darwin's theory of evolution, but the destination had only been seen by a privileged few. Explorer Lars-Eric Lindblad was lured by the prospect of witnessing Darwin's famous finches and other creatures that illustrate the power of evolution in isolation.

Astounded by what he found there, Lindblad recognized the potential for tourism in the archipelago and was compelled to share its wonders—and so, he took the first international tourists to Galápagos in 1967. He had a vision for travel that was grounded in sustainability, long before the green travel movement was mainstream.

Lars-Eric Lindblad exploring the Galápagos in 1968.

During these early days, Lindblad engaged local scientists, conservationists and residents whose lives and livelihoods were intertwined with their wild surroundings. They helped establish tenets for responsible travel, and today, Galapagueños serve as naturalist guides, guest speakers and hosts for island excursions, providing the most authentic experience possible.

“ Mr. Lindblad single-handedly brought international tourism to Galápagos, and he insisted on regulation to prevent damage to the islands. He made it so we specialize in something—a love for nature. ”

— GUSTAVO VALLEJO, JOURNALIST

Many of the responsible tourism guidelines Lindblad helped establish are still followed by operators today, and National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions continues to strengthen its commitment to conservation. With the help of guests, more than $10 million have been contributed to the preservation of Galápagos habitats and communities.

With the recent addition of two ships to the Galápagos fleet—National Geographic Gemini and National Geographic Delfina—National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions now provides an array of options so travelers can choose their ideal Galápagos experience.

These are voyages born from the relationships built and knowledge gained over 50 years of exploration—and they celebrate every part of this special place, from the wild sea to the stars above and the volcanic landscapes and vibrant communities in between. Whatever experience you seek in the Galápagos, you'll find it aboard the fleet, where you'll be privy to the best-kept secrets of this world-renowned destination.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC GLOBAL EXPLORERS PROGRAM

NURTURE THEIR PASSION FOR EXPLORATION

Something magical happens when you introduce a child to the wonders of Galápagos: new passions begin to take hold. Voyages are filled with exciting discoveries that spark curiosity and conversation, from wild encounters with giant tortoises to impromptu courtship dances by blue-footed boobies. Moments like these are especially meaningful when complemented by the learning opportunities in the National Geographic Global Explorers program.

Developed in conjunction with National Geographic Education, this interactive program teaches kids and teens 18 and under how to explore like scientists and tell the stories of the archipelago's legendary wildlife. Led by certified field educators, kids share their experiences through photographs, videos, drawings and more. With a range of activities to choose from, the program encourages young travelers to explore their own interests, whether it's marine biology, geology or photography.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Wildlife Watching

Zip along shore in a Zodiac, then hike in search of Galápagos wildlife, like barking sea lions and marine iguanas. Snap photos with your smartphone and jot notes in your official National Geographic Global Explorers Field Notebook.

Microscopic Exploration

Drop a net over the side of your Zodiac to collect plankton, and check it under a video microscope to see how it looks and moves.

Video Shoots

Get tips from your certified photo instructor on how to create impressive slow-motion and timelapse videos, then test out your new skills in the field.

License to Explore

Learn to operate a Zodiac and earn your 'driver's license.' (Sorry adults, kids only.)

Check Your List

Head to the ship lounge to review the wildlife you saw and mark it in your notebook. Include creatures big and small—whether it's a lava lizard or a giant tortoise. Tally your points to keep track of your progress on becoming certified as a National Geographic Global Explorer.

New Friends and Fun Adventures

Meet up with your new friends for fun activities with your certified field educator. Depending on the day, it might be a pizza dinner, games in the lounge, a special hike or other surprises.

Eyes to the Night Sky

Head to the top deck to watch the stars come out as the sun goes down. Find and record constellations with the help of your certified field educators.

THE GALÁPAGOS ISLANDS

ISABELA

Raise a glass of Ecuadorian wine as you cross the Equator in sight of Volcán Ecuador, a collapsed caldera that harbors penguins and fur seals. Watch for whales and dolphins in these rich waters, once the haunt of whalers and pirates.

FERNANDINA

An oceanic volcano most recently active in 2022, it offers opportunities to walk across lava flows and snorkel with marine iguanas and sea turtles.

SANTIAGO

Explore tide pools and search for recently reintroduced land and marine iguanas on this island where a coastal forest and spectacular geological formations are high points.

FLOREANA

Follow a trail along a rose-pink lagoon frequented by flamingos. Visit Post Office Bay, founded by 18th-century whalers, and snorkel in neighboring waters with enormous schools of tropical fish.

BARTOLOMÉ

Climb to the summit of this volcanic wonderland, then snorkel and swim with penguins from a golden beach.

GENOVESA

Sail to the remote northern realm of the Galápagos, a seabird paradise bathed in warm tropical waters.

NORTH SEYMOUR

Encounter nesting frigatebirds, blue-footed boobies and land and marine iguanas, and enjoy a beautiful coastal walk.

SOUTH PLAZA

Sea lions greet us at South Plaza, an uplifted volcanic block carpeted in salt-loving succulents and teeming with wildlife, including a unique species of land Iguana.

SAN CRISTÓBAL

Search for red-footed boobies and the endemic mockingbird and lava lizard—found only on this easternmost island. Explore Baquerizo Moreno, where sea lion colonies thrive in the middle of town.

SANTA CRUZ

Meet with Galapagueños on the archipelago's most populated island. Visit the Charles Darwin Research Station and explore lush highlands where giant tortoises roam.

RÁBIDA

Snorkel along the rocky coastline among schools of tropical fish and curious sea lions before landing on a brilliant red beach to look for both land and sea birds.

ESPAÑOLA

The oldest Galápagos island, this is a haven for endemic species and many types of birds, including Española mockingbirds, Nazca boobies and, seasonally, the world's only population of waved albatrosses.

COMBINE AND SAVE

Make the most of your time in the region by combining your Galápagos experience with other immersive journeys on the mainland. Or stay in the Galápagos for back-to-back departures of your voyage, enjoying an extended experience that allows you to see even more of this fascinating archipelago. When you book consecutive expeditions—whether it's two, three or more departures—you save 10% on each.

Add Machu Picchu and Peru's Land of the Inca

16 days | Land program + Galápagos aboard National Geographic Gemini, National Geographic Delfina or National Geographic Endeavour II
From: $12,643pp

After your Galápagos voyage, journey from Cusco to fabled Machu Picchu, encountering archaeological relics of the Inca and vibrant cultures of the Andes. Explore three UNESCO World Heritage sites—capital city Lima, colonial Cusco and Machu Picchu—and watch a weaving demonstration with a National Geographic Grantee who has kept Andean textile traditions alive.

Machu Picchu.

Add Upper Amazon: A River Expedition

18 Days | Amazon + Galápagos aboard National Geographic Gemini, National Geographic Delfina or National Geographic Endeavour II
From: $14,487pp

Combine your Galápagos expedition with a voyage on the Upper Amazon aboard the elegant Delfin II. Glide into narrow tributaries by skiff and kayak for a closer look at unusual plants and wildlife, from monkeys and macaws to pink dolphins. You'll also visit local communities along the river that National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions supports in collaboration with Minga Peru.

Delfin II at sunset.

Back-To-Back Galápagos Voyages

Book consecutive departures of any Galápagos voyage to explore even more of the archipelago. Following Galápagos National Park regulations, ships cannot visit an individual site more than once every two weeks; the fleet operates a 14-night schedule with new sites every day, an initiative aimed at spreading visitors across the archipelago for a more intimate experience.

Guests embark on a Zodiac ride in Galápagos.

EXPLORE MORE OF YOUR DESTINATION

Expedition extensions around the Galápagos offer a more complete picture of your destination, bringing you beyond the shoreline to explore the intricate ties between land and sea. Traveling under the care of National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions, alongside local experts with in-depth knowledge of the region, you'll enjoy an illuminating experience and seamless connections between ship and shore. Make the most of your next expedition with one of these pre- or post-voyage extensions.

See Quito

Pre-Voyage | Exploring Galápagos and Galápagos Escape

3 Days | From $449pp

From your base at the Swissôtel Quito, experience this vibrant city—the world’s first UNESCO World Heritage site—with its dazzling colonial churches and bustling traditional markets. Focus your explorations on the Centro Histórico, where a colonial legacy blends with contemporary Andean culture. This extension adds just one night to your voyage, giving you time to get acclimated to Ecuador before your expedition.

Tropical Andes and Colonial Quito

Pre-Voyage | Exploring Galápagos

6 Days | From $2,690pp

After touring Quito’s enchanting UNESCO World Heritage-listed colonial center, enjoy time to explore on your own from your base at Casa Gangotena, a restored Art Deco mansion and Relais & Châteaux property. Then immerse yourself in the Ecuadorian Chocó—one of the world’s top biodiversity hotspots—during a stay at the exquisite Mashpi Lodge, set amid a tropical forest thrumming with life.

Quito and Otavalo

Post-Voyage | Galápagos Escape and Peru and Galápagos Escape
4 Days | From $1,150pp

Explore Ecuador's beautifully preserved colonial capital from Casa Gangotena, part of the prestigious Relais & Châteaux hotel collection. RESERVATION INFORMATION

Terms & Conditions: For complete terms and conditions please visit expeditions.com/terms. For best pricing book early. Prices quoted in this brochure are per person based on double occupancy in USD, and based on select departures. Prices quoted are valid at the time of printing, December 17, 2024, are subject to change and availability at time of booking, and are not guaranteed until required deposit is made. Visit expeditions.com or call for all pricing.

Pricing Includes: All accommodations aboard ship or in hotels per itinerary; transfers, regardless of flight or arrival/departure day, with included services; all meals as indicated in the itinerary, both aboard and onshore; beer, wine, and spirits aboard the ship (except certain super premium brands, which are available for purchase); hors d'oeuvres, 24-hour access to snacks, premium coffees and teas, non-alcoholic beverages and filtered water; excursions; arrival/departure transfers are included for hotel arrangements made through National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions; gratuities in Guayaquil, Quito and Peru to local guides, drivers and tour escort; exploration tools curated to destination, such as Zodiacs, stand-up paddleboards, kayaks, snorkeling equipment (including wetsuits, masks, and fins); guidance and company of leading expedition staff; assistance by the National Geographic certified photo instructor; presentations by expedition staff and expert guest speakers; basic Wi-Fi; complimentary reusable water bottle; services of a physician, where available; morning stretch classes and 24-hour access to exercise equipment, where available; 24-hour access to lounge, observation decks, library and other shared spaces; park and site entrance fees, special access permits and port taxes. Unused services or items included in our programs are non-refundable.

Not Included: Airfare; pre- and post-expedition extensions; additional hotel nights (except when indicated as included); crew gratuities; laundry, spa treatments, scuba diving and phone services; travel protection plans; and passport, visa and immigration fees.

Airfare: For all programs, airfare is an additional cost. National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions will gladly assist in making your air arrangements for a $50 per person service fee.

Reservations, Deposits and Final Payments: To reserve your place, an advance payment deposit is required at the time of reservation. Receipt of advance payment deposit indicates your acceptance of the terms and conditions. Final payment schedule can be found online. Visit expeditions.com/terms for complete details about deposits and final payment schedules, which may vary by ship.

Travel Protection Plan: It is strongly recommended that you take advantage of the Travel Protection Plan. This plan offers comprehensive coverage to protect you from cancellation fees, costs incurred due to trip delays/interruption, medical assistance and damaged or lost baggage, and provides medical assistance and evacuation during your travels. The Travel Protection Plan is available for U.S. residents only and may be purchased any time prior to final payment due date. If you are not satisfied for any reason, you may return your plan within 10 days after purchase. Your premium will be refunded if canceled within 10 days, provided you have not already departed on the trip or filed a claim. When so returned, the coverage under the plan is void from the original date of purchase.

Responsibility and Other Terms & Conditions: Certain provisions concerning, among other things, limitations of Lindblad Expeditions' and National Geographic Expeditions' (a division of National Geographic Partners, LLC) liability for loss of property, injury, illness or death during the voyage will be provided to all guests on the ship's ticket sent prior to departure, and are also available on the website at expeditions.com/terms, or upon request. By registering for a trip, the guest agrees to all such terms and conditions.

Cancellation Policy: Call for details or visit expeditions.com/cancellation-policy
